Proceedings: (IN CHAMBERS) ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE REGARDING TARDY STATUS REPORTS

Under the terms of the Court's February 27, 2019 scheduling order, plaintiff and defendant were required to file status reports, or a joint status report, no later than April 29, 2019. (Docket No. 28, ¶ 10.) As of the date of this order, neither party has filed a status report. (See generally Docket.) The Court therefore ORDERS the parties to show cause in writing, within 20 days of the date of this order, why sanctions, including dismissal or entry of default judgment as relevant, should not be recommended for their failure to comply with a court order. The parties may discharge this order to show cause by filing the status report(s).

As set forth in the scheduling order, the status report(s) must contain the following information:

(a) [A] summary of the proceedings to date and a statement of the principal issues raised by the case; (b) a statement as to whether all parties have been served, and if not, a proposed deadline by which service will be completed; (c) a statement as to whether other parties will be added or amended pleadings will be filed, and if so, a proposed deadline by which those steps will be taken; (d) a description of any discovery completed, and a schedule for any future discovery; (e) a list of contemplated motions, if any, along with proposed dates for the filing and hearing of such motions; (f) an estimate of the time likely to be required for trial, and a statement as to whether trial by jury is desired and has been properly requested; (g) a
